Dear High School Parents,

EIS-J HIGH SCHOOL EXPENSES - 09/10 ACADEMIC YEAR

The following is a list of items that High School students require each academic year. These items are additional to the High School Tuition Fee. Many of these expenses are dependent upon course selection in Grades 10 to 13.

Will be required:

Literature books

- ♦ IGCSE First Language students buy "A Students Study Guide for London Examinations IGCSE English (First) Language" from the English Department.
- ♦ IGCSE Literature students all buy "A View from the Bridge" and then either "Of Mice and Men" or "Pride and Prejudice".

Calculators (details to be given by Mathematics Department)

- ♦ Grade 9-11 students require a scientific calculator.
- ♦ Grades 12-13 students require a graphic calculator (model must satisfy IBDP guidelines).

Stationery

- ♦ Students are required to have their own stationery for each class (although some exercise books are given out in Grades 7-9). Stationery requirements include: pens, pencils, erasers, English Language dictionary, English Language thesaurus, ruler and mathematical instrument set (according to class topic being covered), A4 files and A4 file paper.

Field trips

- ♦ Compulsory coursework: IBDP Biology ecology field work, IGCSE and IBDP Geography fieldwork, IGCSE and IBDP Art.
- ♦ Whole grade trips: Each grade group takes at least one field trip each year. These require bus fare and often entry fees.

Edexcel International and International Baccalaureate Fees

- ♦ External examination fees and associated expenses (courier, administration and invigilation) for IGCSE and IBDP courses.

Food ingredients for Food Science and Technology

- ♦ Grades 7 to 11 require ingredients for cooking lessons and containers to carry food home.

Uniform

- ♦ Regular day uniform / PE uniform / Formal uniform.

Grade 13 Graduation Ceremony – photograph pack and ceremony gown hire.
