WHAT ARE THE SCHOOLS' STRENGTHS AND POINTS TO IMPROVE?

BEST FEATURES OF THE SCHOOL

- The welcoming and vibrant environment provided for children in the early years
- Students' very good achievement in English, mathematics and science and the many opportunities for students to excel in the arts and sport
- The inclusive ethos that pervades the school
- The very good arrangements for keeping students safe and promoting healthy lifestyles
- The wide variety of extra-curricular activities that cater well for students' broader range of skills and interests

POINTS TO IMPROVE

- Improve the leadership of Arabic as a first language and raise standards of teaching, learning and student achievement in the subject
- Extend the range of programmes available in the upper years to cater more effectively for students' abilities and interests

WELLBEING

THE QUALITY OF WELLBEING PROVISION AND OUTCOME IS AT A VERY HIGH LEVEL

The wellbeing of all is a high priority in the school. It is skillfully integrated in all areas of school life. Corridors and classrooms promote artwork, posters and academic work that demonstrate important qualities, examples being kindness, respect, health, compassion and empathy. Modified work for students of determination present opportunities to build confidence and achieve personal success. There are clear procedures to guide the safeguarding of students. Healthy living is promoted well throughout school life.

PROGRESS IN KEY SUBJECTS AND INCLUSION

In the early years, children make very good progress in all areas of learning. This continues in English, mathematics and science as students move through the school. Progress in Islamic education and Arabic as an additional language is good. It is only acceptable in Arabic as a first language. Students of determination are well supported by staff and make very good progress towards their learning goals.

LEADERSHIP AND TEACHING FOR EFFECTIVE LEARNING

The principal and senior staff provide a clear vision for the future of the school. They have a very good understanding of the school's performance. Parents are very satisfied with the academic and personal progress their children are making. The school runs smoothly on a day-to-day basis and is well staffed with qualified teachers.

Teaching is frequently very good with some outstanding teaching seen across all phases. Most teachers use their subject knowledge and skills well to plan interesting lessons. The foundations of students' very good learning skills are set in the early years and extended as they move through the school. In Arabic as a first language, teachers do not always make the best use of these skills.
