For students coming from Dubai schools, Original Transfer Certificate is an important document required by KHDA. Transfer Certificate needs to be collected from Student's current school at the end of the Academic Year and submitted to EIS Meadows before the first joining day of the student.

For the overseas students, an Original Transfer Certificate is required by the UAE Ministry of Education from Year 3 and above. It requires attestations from the country of origin. A sample can be found on our website

 All students are required to be registered with KHDA (Ministry of Education, Dubai), and parents must complete the parent-school contract before their child's commencement at the school.

All children enrolling into Early Years must be fully toilet trained. Children must know how to use the toilet and be able to communicate verbally to an adult when they need to go to the toilet.
